ILBAGNOALESSI dOt: A bathroom revolution in matte black ceramic

The hip theme in bathroom architecture and interior design is: Black is beautiful. Colour contrasts between black and white, and also authentic materials are all the rage. Ceramic, inherently a material of integrity, is now experiencing nothing short of a revolution sparked by black ceramic combos.

For a bathroom specialist like Laufen, closely attuned to current developments in design and architecture, it was incentive enough to enhance the portfolio with a selection of high quality ceramic pieces in a matte black variation for the ILBAGNOALESSI dOt bathroom collection. Created by Dutch architect, Wiel Arets, the designer bathroom is originally characterised by clearly architectonic traits. The new matte black objects give planners even greater freedom to create original bathroom concepts – in combination for instance with other authentic materials like wood or natural stone, but also high gloss surface finishes.

Besides the whole ILBAGNOALESSI dOt spectrum in white, the TamTam washbasin, wall-hung WC, urinal and ceramic shelves in matte black are now available to create irresistible combos. With its vast and remarkably smooth surfaces, resplendent in the new colour, the floorstanding TamTam washbasin is especially awesome. Thrilling bathroom orchestrations are guaranteed success with this diva, whether performing solo or as part of an ensemble with other black or white collection pieces. As you'd expect, the Swiss manufacturer also has a masterly eye for detail: The WC seat, cover and also the urinal cover are of course also available in exclusive matte black.

With its love of elementary geometric shapes, the circle, square and angles, ILBAGNOALESSI dOt is a soulmate of the classic ILBAGNOALESSI One, design by Stefano Giovannoni. The bathroom ensemble with the signature dOt is the product of a close cooperation between the Italian design factory Alessi, Swiss bathroom specialist Laufen and the Finnish faucets manufacturer, Oras. The successful collection includes washbasins, WCs, bidets, urinals, bath tubs and shower trays, accessories, faucets and matching furniture. ▼
